PRACTICE ON CANTATA

The choir of the Third Street M. E. Church had its first rehearsal of the Christmas Cantata to be given Sunday evening preceding Christmas, on Monday night at the home of J. H. Richardson. The title of the cantata to be given is "The Light Eternal" by H. W. Petrie. It is one of the popular Lorenz cantatas that this choir has given on several occasions. This is a new one and gives promise of being one of the best yet given. A chorus of about twenty, accompanied by piano, cornets, trombone and other instruments will give it. The choir will put in its best work from now on in order to make it a great success.

ATTRACTI0NS

For the Maysville Tobacco Fair and Corn Show in the Liberty Warehouse This Week Will Be Many-Valuable Prizes.

The plans for the Maysville Tobacco Fair and Corn Show to be held in the Liberty Warehouse on Commerce street the latter three days of this week have about been perfected and little remains to be done except to advertise the fair and prepare the exhibits.

A large number of men were busy yesterday traveling over the surrounding country advertising the fair. The huge posters, which were printed in the Ledger office, are being distributed all over the county and other surrounding counties. Advertising is being placed in West Union, Ohio, and other places equally distant. The managers of the fair realize that advertising will bring the crowds and they are doing a great deal of this work.

The enthusiasm for the fair is at a veritable fever heat, and thousands of people are expected to come from all over this section of the state to see the fair. The entries for the various exhibits are open to the world and a large number of exhibits will be shown. Already a number have arrived.

Exhibits will be received at the Liberty Warehouse as follows: Tuesday, November 21 from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Wednesday, November 22, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Thursday, November 23, from 7:30 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Please enter your exhibit early.

Several attractions will be in the Liberty. A palmist will be present and several free attractions will be shown. Lucy and Costello, wizards of the violin and accordion will be one of the attractions and Savvy's Acrobatic Bulldogs will undoubtedly attract a large number of persons interested in trained animals.

The warehouse is now being decorated by William Beck & Son of Cincinnati, famous decorators. The interior of the building, when completed by the Messrs. Beck, will be a thing of beauty. Some of the booths have already been decorated and all will have their displays ready by Wednesday night. The local signwriters are very busy arranging signs for the various booths. Nearly all of the booths have been taken, and the remainder will be sold before the fair opens.

The following is a list of additional prizes offered to the school children:

Best specimen of writing by first grade pupil taking that grade for the first time; sentence to be written "I love to write." First prize, $1.00; second prize, 50 cents.

Persons coming from Manchester to the Kentucky side of the river for the purpose of catching a train are compelled to walk a mile down the track on account of low water in the river. The ferry cannot land at its regular place and the passengers are the ones to suffer.

As a result of the Win-My-Chum Week services and the hustling of the new pastor, Rev. S. K. Hunt of the Third Street M. E. Church, a large class of new members will be received into the church next Sunday morning. Great preparations are being made to make it a banner day in church, Sunday School and Epworth League.

THOMAS HERRON

Who Had Back Broken at the Bates & Rogers Construction Camp Last Week Dies at Hayswood Hospital Last Night.

Mr. Thomas Herron, who had his back broken while working at the Bates & Rogers Construction Camp just east of the city last week, died at the Hayswood Hospital last night at 12:25 o'clock.

Mr. Herron was working near a large smokestack on the day of the injury. In some manner the smokestack fell and Mr. Herron was caught under it. When the large stack was removed he was found to have suffered a broken back. He was hurriedly removed to Hayswood Hospital where he staid until his death.

Mr. Herron was a rather young man being only 35 years of age. He had lived in this city for about four years, coming here with his family from Lewis county. He had worked on the Lock and Dam No. 33 all summer. He leaves a widow and two children and one brother.

The funeral will be held from his late home on West Second street Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Maysville Cemetery.

LOVE OF FAMILY

When Bryan was secretary of state, he had his son appointed to a position in the department of justice and his son-in-law to one in the treasury department. McAdoo has put two of his sons on the government roll. A place for Secretary Daniel's brother was made in the department of justice. For a while D. C. Roper, first assistant postmaster general until recently, had three members of his family at the government feed trough. Speaker Clark's son has been given a $4,000 sinecure. A son of Senator Overman of North Carolina holds a $2,500 government job and his daughter a position that pays $1,440. The wife and the brother of Senator Gore of Oklahoma are in Uncle Sam's pay. A son of Senator Tillman is on the Alaska railroad commission. Senator O'Gorman obtained the fat office of collector of the port of New York for his son-in-law. A son of Representative Pace of North Carolina drew $1,600 a year while a student at college for doing nothing at all for the government until someone—not a Democrat—raised an objection.

So it runs all the way through congress and the administrative offices. Some Democrats have provided for four or five relatives some for only one or two—probably lacking cousins or uncles or grandfathers who wanted jobs.—Toledo Blade.

WHY SUGAR PRODUCERS PROSPER

The Department of Commerce has issued a statement showing great activity in the sugar beet industry as evidenced by recent heavy importations of sugar-beet seed which we cannot successfully produce in this country. The figures show that in nine months of 1916, we imported 18,500,000 pounds of seed. It is worthy of note, however, that during the entire year 1915 when the sugar beet growers expected sugar to go on the free list as the Democratic Congress had decreed that it should, we imported only 4,000,000 pounds. The European war, which shut Germany off from the market for her sugar, gave us a market that revived the industry.

WHEN GOLD IS A MENACE

There seems to be much misunderstanding as to the reason why large banking interests are concerned over the abnormal amount of gold in this country. It is not the amount of gold that causes anxiety. It is the fact that the gold has been shipped here because of abnormal trade conditions. The influx of gold has caused inflation. When the abnormal conditions end, the flow of gold will be outward, and there will be contraction. A large increase in gold would be desirable under sound economic conditions—it is a menace when we are confronted with the danger of rapid withdrawal after the abnormal support has been withdrawn.

The most serious aspects of the high cost of living are still ahead of us. Our exports of wheat and flour have been so heavy, in proportion to our domestic supply, that we had on November 1 a reserve estimated at only 88,000,000 bushels, whereas the usual reserve supply is about 90,000,000 bushels. We shall have plenty to eat, but we shall pay well for it.

We have a revival of the question. "What is the matter with Kansas."

REFUGEES TELL OF OUTRAGES

El Paso, Texas, November 19—An unidentified American was killed when a Villa band took Jimenez and four Americans were seen under a guard of bandits at Parral during Villa's occupation of that town, according to reports believed by federal agents to be authentic, brought to the border by refugees. Refugees state further that the district between Parral and Jimenez has been cleared by Villa's followers of more than 200 Chinese.

The American killed at Jimenez was described as about 60 years old and known to be from Torreon, on his way to Chihuahua City. He was murdered said the refugees, in the Jimenez hotel and his body lay for some time in front of the building, when after being robbed of clothing and valuables, it was placed on a bonfire.

The same refugees who claim to have been witnesses of the outrages say also that two Mexican women who had married Chinese and their five half-caste children were found and thrown alive into the fire and cremated in sight of the crowd. The bodies of seven murdered Chinese, according to the same authority, were seen in the streets of the town.

Two Mexicans who escaped from Parral affirmed that they sow four Americans there under a Villa guard, was that the bodies of thirty-five gypsies of both sexes were seen on and robbed by Villa bandits. The gypsies are believed to be of Syrian origin.

CZAR'S LOSS SINCE JUNE ESTIMATED AT 2,128,474

Berlin, November 19—According to the central identification office of Kiev, Russia, says the Overseas News Agency, the number of Russian casualties since June 1, 1916, has reached 10,621 officers and 2,027,853 men.

Among the soldiers who recently have fallen, according to the same source, are one General of brigade, four Colonels and four Lieutenants Colonels in command of regiments.

It is apparent from the recent Russian lists, the Overseas Agency says, that part of the Russian forces on the Caucasus front have been sent to the European war theater.

I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging down feeling through my hips. EARLY END

Of Border Powwow Is Now Promised—Secretary Lane Is Assured of Administration's Approval of Mexican Commission's Efforts.

Washington, November 19—Armed with President Wilson's complete approval of his course, Secretary Lane will return to Atlantic City tomorrow determined to bring the sessions of the American-Mexican joint commission to an early conclusion. He is still hopeful that an agreement as to the border situation can be reached, but it was indicated clearly today in official circles that the joint conference is entering on its final phase, agreement or no agreement.

If the commissioners find it impossible to formulate a plan, the view taken here will be that the prospect of settling border disputes through diplomacy will be remote. Officials make no predictions, however, as to what steps the Washington Government might find it necessary to take in that event to insure the safety of border towns and ranches.

Commission Is Supported

Secretary Lane is understood to have found President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Secretary Baker in full accord with him on every point when he laid before them last night in a three-hour conference at the White House a review of the efforts the American commissioners had made to reach a settlement. Every step proposed by Mr. Lane in behalf of his colleagues was approved by the President and the Secretary returned to his task backed by the unwavering support of the administration in whatever course has been mapped out.

It is an open secret that Luis Cabrera, Carranza Minister of Finance and president of the Mexican commission, has proved the stumbling block in the way of reaching an agreement. Commissioners Bonillas and Pani, it is said, have been ready to approve several different suggestions for co-operative action. Cabrera, however, held out for control of any point operation by a Mexican military commander, a concession the American commissioners did not feel warranted in making.

Double Patrol Probable

It is believed here that the American commissioners have now abandoned the effort to frame an agreement satisfactory to the Mexicans in every detail and will renew tomorrow their original suggestions that each Government patrol its own side of the line independently, but with the understanding that American troops will pursue into Mexico on a "hot trail" and bands who attack border towns. Coupled with that suggestion, presumably, was the statement that General Pershing's forces would be withdrawn gradually from Mexico, and that no large force would be sent across the line again unless the de facto Government permitted raiders to assemble in such forces in Mexico that a strong expedition was necessary to prevent a serious attack.

Army officials believe that the American expeditionary force soon will be moving toward the border, regardless of the turn events may take at Atlantic City.

Americans Escape Parral

Official advice from the border to-day indicated that all of the Americans at Parral had made their escape and will soon arrive in Nogales, Ariz.

The advices indicate that the Villa forces are not in actual possession of Parral, Jiminez or any of the other towns in that region which border reports have said they control. The fate of the Chinese and other foreigners besides Americans in the vicinity where the bandits are active is not known definitely, and it is believed several Chinese might have been killed.

HOBSON PREDICTS GAIN FOR DRY IN HOUSE — BELIEVE OHIO WILL ENTER PROHIBITION RANKS.

Portsmouth, Ohio, November 19—Captain Richmond P. Hobson addressed a meeting here today in the interest of the dry cause, advertised as the opening gun in Ohio for the cause of nation prohibition. Judge A. Z. Blair presided.

Hobson predicted a gain for the drys in the complexion of the newly elected National House of Representatives, but did not claim the necessary two thirds vote for submission of the Hobson amendment. However, he asserted that 40 States Legislatures are dry and that the 34 states necessary to propose the amendment would be forthcoming should the next Congress fail to act.

This would be the first time in the country's history, he said, a constitutional amendment had been so proposed. Failure of either method, the speaker said, would make national prohibition the paramount issue of the 1920 national campaign.

Both Hobson and Blair predicted Ohio would go dry next fall. Introducing Hobson, Judge Blair quoted twice from Sunday's Enquirer to prove his connection that the tendency of the times favors the dry cause. He alluded to Bryan's Indianapolis speech commanding prohibition to the Democratic party, and again to The Enquirer's weekly Kentucky letter in which a wet and dry election is forecast for that state next year.

Hobson disagreed with the Bryan plan to have national prohibition come through espousal of the dry cause by the Democrats, but said it would be brought by joint action of the two older parties, two thirds of each of which he claimed are dry.

FLIGHT RECORD MADE BY WOMAN MISS RUTH LAW FLIES FROM CHICAGO TO HORNELL, N. Y., WITHOUT STOP

Binghamton, N. Y., November 19—Attempting a non-stop flight from Chicago to New York, Miss Ruth Law, guiding a Curtiss biplane of the military scout type, shattered all American long distance aviation records for a single flight today, when she flew from Chicago to Hornell, N. Y., a distance by railroad of about 660 miles, bettering by about 100 miles the record made by Victor Carlstrom November 2.

A delayed start and a cross wind that cut down her speed and forced her to descend to replenish the gasoline supply, were responsible for her failure to reach New York City. Miss Law said after her arrival at Binghamton this afternoon at 4:20 o'clock.

Previously to today, Miss Law never had made a single flight longer than twenty-five miles.

Miss Law covered a distance of about 785 miles in six hours and fifty minutes, time being deducted for the descent at Hornell. The first 663 miles, the distance by rail between Chicago and Hornell, was made without a stop.

Miss Law left Chicago at 8:25 o'clock this morning, Eastern time. At the outset of her flight a strong wind blew toward the East. Alarmed by this she made an average speed of 100 miles an hour at an altitude of about 6,000 feet. During the last 200 miles, before the stop at Hornell, a sharp cross wind blew, with the result that her gasoline tank was soon empty. She glided into Hornell at 2:07 o'clock this afternoon.

After replenishing her supply of gasoline Miss Law flew the remaining 117 miles to Binghamton without mishap. Here darkness overtook her and she was forced to descend. She intends to continue to New York tomorrow morning, making the start at 7 o'clock.

Miss Law's experience has been gained wholly in short exhibition flights. Her flight today was held under the auspices of the Aero Club of America.

SECOND INAUGURATION WILL BE SIMPLE AFFAIR

Washington, November 19—President Wilson's second inauguration probably will be a comparatively simple affair. While he has not discussed details with his advisers he is known to desire that there should be as little ceremony as possible.

It is accepted as certain by officials that there will be no inaugural ball, brought by joint action of the two older parties, two thirds of each of which he claimed are dry.

We had supposed the fly-swatting campaign of previous years tended to render anything of the sort now superfluous.

AUSTRIA DOUBTS

The Changes of Peace Overture—Vienna Interested, However in Reports of Wilson Plan and Willing to Treat for Agreement—Entente Position is Urged As Obstacle.

Vienna, November 17, via London, November 19—Interest in the announcement received in Vienna that President Wilson intends to take concrete action in behalf of peace, continues unabated, though in many Austrian circles the view is held that the attitude of entente powers will render Mr. Wilson's good offices futile.

It is argued in government circles and in the press that so long as the entente nations adhere to the program recently reiterated by Premier Asquith and Viscount Grey there is really no occasion for Austria-Hungary to show great entente government officials asserted that the war objectives were not discussable.

This aspect, it is pointed out in government circles, could be changed only by a readiness of the entente to proceed from a quite different base. With the entente willing to discuss peace on terms of the re-establishment of pre-war conditions, so modified as to take into account the Central Powers' interests that have suffered Austria-Hungary's attitude might be expected to change.

Entente Position Attacked

As the matter stands, certain government circles hold that little can be gained by declaring a readiness to meet the entente on a peace preliminary so long as the entente has failed to indicate that it would be content with much less than shown in the recent speeches made in London. It is felt by Austrian officials that the acceptance of an invitation for such a conference with the entente holding off for a program which is little short of the total annihilation of the Central Powers and their allies, would be equal to acknowledgment that the Central Powers were ready to secure peace on any terms.

While President Wilson's good intentions are not doubted in the least and while his offer might be accepted gladly, it is pointed out that the Entente Powers would gain undue and unjustified encouragement if Austria-Hungary were to pit its own modest claims against those of the Entente still seeking the dual monarchy's dismemberment.

There is no doubt in the minds of Austrians in a position to know that the Central Powers are ready for negotiations, but nothing short of the conditions outlined in the foregoing would induce them in the present military situation to join a conference such as is understood here to have been proposed by President Wilson.

The second installment of Austrian press comments mirrors this strongly.

Report Unfounded

Washington, November 19—It is assumed in official circles here that Austrian discussion of the prospects of peace by President Wilson is based upon some unfounded rumor reaching Vienna or upon a misinterpretation of one of the President's speeches during the campaign advocating a world league for peace to make another such war as that now raging in Europe impossible.

The President, it is understood, has not changed his opinion that any action by him, at the present stage of the European conflict would be ill-timed and futile unless the belligerent nations indicated that it would be welcomed and it is stated authoritatively that no immediate step is in contemplation.

BRYAN SAYS HE IS NOT YET DEAD POLITICALLY

Indianapolis, Ind., November 19—William Jennings Bryan in addressing the National W. C. T. U. convention here today, said he was not dead politically, but asserted he is "in politics with both feet." He said he was in favor of national prohibition.

"I love my party, and because of my love for it, hope and feel that it will be a 'dry' Democracy," said Mr. Bryan. He said further that in spite of his desire to see national prohibition come through Democratic influence, his prayers for a saloonless nation extended beyond party lines and that he would not necessarily await the triumph of the prohibition cause through the Democratic party, but would welcome a dry nation through the Republican party. He also asserted the trend of circumstances of the last few years were such that he was hopeful of a constitutional amendment perhaps as soon as 1920.

The convention sermon was delivered in the afternoon by Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, of Riverside, Cal., who asserted the liquor traffic is doomed.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS URGED BY CALEB POWERS TO TAKE STAND FOR PROHIBITION

Washington, November 19—In a statement given out here today Representative Caleb Powers, of Kentucky, who was re-elected to Congress November 7, calls upon the Republicans of that state to make statewide prohibition their rallying cry in next year's campaign.

The statement is as follows: "There is a fight to the death in the Democratic party in Kentucky between the wet and the dry forces. The Republicans cannot afford to take the immoral side of a moral issue. The race for

United States Senator takes place in Kentucky next year. If the Republicans next spring in their State convention, will take a stand for statewide prohibition, and if a United States Senator is nominated thereon, the Republicans ought to carry the State next fall.

I base this conclusion on the idea that the machinery of the Democratic party in the state is doubtless will nominate a wet candidate for the United States

Senate."

E. P. Morrow, of Somerset, who made the race for Governor against A. O.

Stanley, is being mentioned for the Senate nomination, but it is probable he will run again for Governor, as the general opinion among Kentucky Republican leaders is that he is most available for that race.
